

GROUP DISCUSSION REPORT

FACULTY COORDINATOR : Associate professor Dr. Naresh Verma

On 6th October, 2023 group discussion was conducted in the classroom of Second Year students. There were a total of 4 groups allotted to the students according to their roll numbers, and each group was assigned with a specific topic. The topics discussed were as follows :

GROUP 1 : Various schemes by government of India related to industry in the year 2023-2024

GROUP 2 : G20 Summit (First G20 summit, Countries involved, highlights of the 2023 G20 summit)

GROUP 3 : Government Budget Analysis of India for the year 2023-2024

GROUP 4 :New Education Policy (effects on higher education)

The motive of this seminar was to conduct a group discussion among the students to observe their personality, skills and their ability to discuss on the given subject. It was a step taken to guide the students on how to take part in group discussions.

The group discussion lasted for about 2 to 3 hours. Some highlights of the discussion were :

- Each student contributed exceptional information while everyone else listen with utmost interest and sincerity as they shared their ideas.
- The coordinator of the department of BBA , Dr. Naresh Verma sir encouraged the students during the session to read newspapers and be aware of the current news in the world. He also advised them to pursue some add on courses to enhance their skills and improve their caliber.

- It was observed that there was an initiator, who was also a dominator in group 1 and group 4.
- Each group came prepared with their analysis on the topics and there was perfect coordination amongst every group member.
- The group discussion was conducted in both English and Hindi language so that the students could express themselves without any hesitation.

The seminar was concluded by the teachers of the department before congratulating the students on demonstrating their excellent presentations on their topics with very well organised reports. The teachers also encouraged the students by announcing the second group as the best presenters amongst the other groups and mentioned how every student had performed their best.

After observing and listening the discussion of students, it was evident that even though the students seemed a little hesitant during the discussion, the session held today will leave a mark on the students and will guide them as they look forward to group discussions in the future.

