REPORT ON NIPUN TESTING CAMP AT STC REWALSAR

A REPORT

Bharat Scouts & Guides, Sanjauli Unit

Three Rovers from the Bharat Scouts and Guides, GDC Sanjauli Unit—Rover Akshat, Rover Kartik, and Rover Kunal Thakur—enthusiastically participated in the Nipun Testing Camp organized at the State Training Centre (STC), Rewalsar from 8th to 13th October 2025.

8TH TO 13TH OCTOBER 2025

The camp was designed to test and enhance the knowledge, efficiency, and leadership qualities of Rovers, while strengthening the values of discipline, service, and teamwork that form the foundation of the Scouting movement. Over the course of six enriching days, participants engaged in a variety of training sessions, outdoor activities, and service duties that provided both learning and inspiration.

Rover Kunal Thakur attended the camp as a Service Rover, playing an instrumental role in assisting the organizing team. His active participation, sense of responsibility, and dedicated efforts ensured the smooth conduct of events, proper coordination among participants, and maintenance of discipline throughout the camp.

8TH TO 13TH OCTOBER 2025

Rewalsar, Himachal Pradesh, India

Rovers Akshat and Kartik took part as participants in the Nipun Testing programme. They successfully completed a series of practical and theoretical assessments that included first aid, pioneering, mapping, tent pitching, knotting, patrol system, scouting laws and promise, and community service. Through these activities, they displayed commendable teamwork, patience, and enthusiasm for Scouting ideals.

8TH TO 13TH OCTOBER 2025

The camp environment at STC Rewalsar, surrounded by serene hills and the spirit of camaraderie, provided an ideal setting for self-development. The interactive sessions, group discussions, and service activities not only enhanced the knowledge of participants but also instilled in them a deeper understanding of the true essence of Scouting—service before self.

The Nipun Testing Camp 2025 proved to be a memorable and transformative experience for all who attended. It helped every Rover grow more confident, disciplined, and service-oriented, embodying the principles of duty to God, duty to others, and duty to self.
