

A Grand Send-off: 'Cheero' Farewell 2026 at CoE Sanjauli

A grand farewell ceremony captioned "Cheero" was organized for the final-year undergraduate students at the premises of Centre of Excellence Govt. College Sanjauli, marking a unique blend of dignity and joy. Principal Prof. Bharti Bhagra graced the occasion as the chief guest and, in her address, highlighted the significance of college life, stating that this period is not just for acquiring education but is a golden age for personality development and gathering lifelong memories; she further extended her best wishes to the outgoing students for future challenges and encouraged them to remain lifelong learners. The event was high on cultural fervour as students enthralled the audience with vibrant folk dances and melodious songs, while final-year students took to the stage to share their past experiences and inspire their juniors to hone their talents by making the most of every moment in college. The highlight of the program was the modelling competition featuring 65 participants, where, after a tough contest, Mohit and Oshin were crowned 'Mr. Excellence' and 'Miss Excellence' respectively, with titles also being awarded to Krish (Mr. Runner-up), Raunak (Miss Runner-up), Swati (Miss Glamorous), Adarsh (Mr. Dressed to Kill), Harsh (Mr. Enchanter of Hearts), and Tamanna (Miss Captivator of Hearts). Filled with grandeur and splendor, the ceremony concluded on a note of emotional farewells and high hopes for a bright future.

