

BEE AWARENESS DAY

On

12th September, 2023

The department of Geography, Centre of Excellence, Govt. Degree College, Sanjauli celebrated Bee Awareness Day on 12th September 2023 on the theme “Knowing Our Social Friends: Honey Bees”, in guidance of Ms. Mona Sharma (HOD, Geog. Dept.) and Ms. Janhavi Thakur. This event was rescheduled from 19th August 2023 (National Bee Day) to 12th September 2023 due to adverse weather conditions as natural calamity was declared in our state.

The main purpose of this event was to make students aware about the role and importance of honey bees in ecosystem and to mankind. Students of B.A. 1st, 2nd and 3rd Year with geography as their DSE participated in it. Two presenters from each class gave a presentation on honey bees, their life-cycle, role and importance as well as adulteration in honey. Finally, inter-class quiz was conducted on the same topic. Sneha Nautiyal student of B.A. 2nd year was chosen as best presenter and Rishabh Katoch student of B.A. 1st year was chosen for creating best power-point presentation. In the quiz competition Bhawna (B.A. 2nd Year) came first; Upasana Sharma (B.A. 1st Year), Prearna (B.A. 2nd Year), Madhur Negi (B.A. 2nd Year), Sonal Kanwar (B.A. 2nd Year), Ved Priya (B.A. 2nd Year) came second and Ritika (B.A. 2nd Year), Ritika (B.A. 3rd Year), Hariom Thakur (B.A. 3rd Year) came third. Hence, through this awareness program students were sensitized about the role of honey bees in ecosystem to some extent and they learnt interesting facts about honey bees.
