Centre of Excellence

GOVERNMENT COLLEGE SANJAULI

SHIMLA-06, H.P.

{NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME}

Report

Ann Sanjeevani

Date:18/09/2025

Introduction:

The National Service Scheme (NSS), Centre of Excellence, Government College Sanjauli, Shimla-6, Himachal Pradesh, successfully organized Ann Sanjeevani , a humanitarian initiative aimed at promoting generosity, compassion, and social responsibility. The programme focused on supporting those in need through meaningful donations and collective community participation. It reflected the NSS motto, "Not Me But You," and encouraged students to contribute towards the welfare of society.Through this programme, the NSS Unit aimed to create awareness about the importance of helping underprivileged and vulnerable sections of society. It also encouraged young students to develop a sense of responsibility towards the community and understand the importance of collective efforts in addressing social needs.

Objectives:

The main objectives of Ann Sanjeevani were as follows:

1. To promote kindness, compassion, and generosity among students and encourage them to help those in need.

2. To support needy and underprivileged sections of society through meaningful donations and humanitarian efforts.

3. To develop a sense of social responsibility among NSS volunteers and motivate them to contribute towards community welfare.
4. To encourage youth participation in social service activities and promote the spirit of volunteerism.

5. To strengthen community participation by bringing together volunteers and contributors for a common humanitarian cause.

6. To promote the values of selfless service, cooperation, and humanity in accordance with the NSS motto, “Not Me But You.”

About the Activity :

Ann Sanjeevani was organized with the active participation of NSS volunteers and contributors. The initiative encouraged donations to support those in need and spread awareness about the importance of giving back to society. Volunteers demonstrated dedication and enthusiasm throughout the initiative. The programme highlighted the value of collective efforts and showed how small contributions can make a meaningful difference in the lives of otherThe initiative successfully reflected the spirit of unity and cooperation. It reinforced the belief that a caring and responsible society can be built when individuals come together and work towards a common goal.

Ann Sanjeevani was started by the NSS Unit to provide food support to people in need, especially those living in slum areas. The initiative focused on collecting good-quality food items and ensuring their proper distribution among underprivileged communities. The collected food was distributed to those who needed it the most , helping them meet their basic food requirements. The NSS volunteers collected a total of 20 kg of ration and donated it to the needy people in Bangla Colony.The activity encouraged volunteers to show kindness, compassion, and social responsibility towards the needy. Through this initiative, the NSS Unit promoted the values of sharing, humanity, and selfless service, reflecting the NSS motto, “Not Me But You.”

Benefits and impacts :

Ann Sanjeevani offered several social and educational benefits to both the volunteers and the wider community.

1. The programme promoted empathy, kindness, and compassion among students by encouraging them to understand the needs of others and contribute towards the welfare of society.

2. Ann Sanjeevani 2.0 encouraged social responsibility among NSS volunteers and motivated them to participate actively in humanitarian activities for the betterment of the community.

3. The donation initiative aimed to support needy and underprivileged individuals by encouraging people to share their resources and contribute towards fulfilling the needs of others.

4. The programme strengthened community participation by bringing together NSS volunteers and contributors, demonstrating how collective efforts can create a positive impact on society.

5. The initiative helped develop teamwork, leadership, cooperation, and organizational skills among volunteers while encouraging them to take responsibility for meaningful social activities.

6. The programme promoted a culture of giving and generosity among students, highlighting that even small contributions can make a meaningful difference in the lives of people in need.

7. Ann Sanjeevani reinforced the core values of the National Service Scheme by putting its motto, “Not Me But You,” into practice and encouraging selfless service, unity, and concern for others.

8. The initiative encouraged youth participation in nation-building by inspiring students to become responsible citizens and contribute towards creating a caring, supportive, and inclusive society.

Acknowledgement:

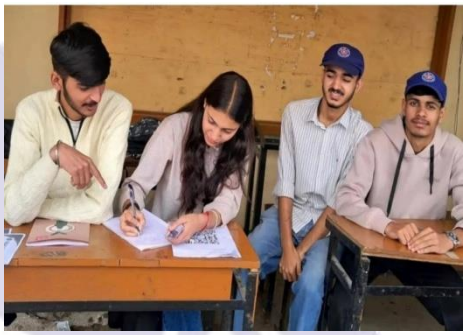

The NSS Unit expresses its sincere gratitude to the college administration for its guidance and support. Special thanks are extended to all NSS volunteers and contributors for their active participation, generous donations, and dedicated efforts. Their cooperation played an important role in making Ann Sanjeevani a successful and meaningful initiative. The Unit also appreciates the enthusiasm and commitment shown by the volunteers throughout the programme. Their efforts helped spread awareness about the importance of generosity, compassion, and community service. The contribution of every individual involved is highly valued, as collective participation made this humanitarian initiative meaningful. The NSS Unit hopes to continue organizing such activities to promote social welfare and strengthen the spirit of selfless service among students.

Conclusion:

Ann Sanjeevani was a successful humanitarian initiative that promoted generosity, social responsibility, and community service. The programme inspired students to support those in need and contribute towards building a caring and inclusive society. It truly reflected the spirit of the NSS motto, "Not Me But You," and emphasized the importance of selfless service in nation-building.

The initiative also highlighted the importance of unity, kindness, and collective efforts in bringing positive changes to society. It encouraged NSS volunteers to continue participating in welfare activities and spreading the message of humanity. Overall, Ann Sanjeevani served as a meaningful step towards creating a more compassionate and responsible community.

Important Links
Facebook	https://www.facebook.com/share/p/1DZrYhQjN9/
Instagram	https://www.instagram.com/p/DOiwP_YE60N/?xtok=aHg0N2hsYTBqcHE4
Twitter	https://x.com/coe_nss/status/1966850716892622973

Reported by:
Vol. Jitendrasharma BA 2nd (24534007)