Unity March

Date:21/11/2025

Introduction:

A Padyatra was organised by the NSS Unit of Government College Sanjauli on 19 November 2025, with the theme "Unity in Action!" The march began from the college campus and continued till ChauraMaidan, drawing attention to the importance of unity, harmony, and social responsibility among youth and citizens. The event was conducted to encourage students and the community to come together for a drug-free, self-reliant, and progressive India. The Padyatra created a strong sense of enthusiasm, discipline, and collective spirit among the volunteers, who actively participated in every part of the programme.

Objectives:

The main objectives of the unity March are:

1. To spread awareness about national unity, harmony, and social responsibility.
2. To encourage youth to take a stand against drug abuse and promote a drug-free society.

3. To inspire students and community members to work towards a self-reliant India.

4. To strengthen teamwork, discipline, and leadership qualities among NSS volunteers.

5. To promote physical fitness and community participation through collective marching.

About the March:

The Padyatra began from the campus of Government College Sanjauli early in the morning, with NSS volunteers assembling in full enthusiasm and discipline. As the march moved from the college gate towards ChauraMaidan, the volunteers raised slogans promoting unity, peace, and a drug-free society, capturing the attention of people along the route. The march was not just a physical movement but a strong social message delivered through the collective energy of young students. The presence of Chief Guest Mr. Suresh Kashyap, who joined the march midway, added great motivation and pride to the event. He interacted with the volunteers, appreciated their efforts, and encouraged them to continue serving the nation with Throughout the march, NSS volunteers maintained excellent coordination, walking in rows, holding banners, and engaging with the public with respect and confidence. Their unity and discipline impressed the onlookers and generated awareness among shopkeepers, pedestrians, and residents in the area. Upon reaching ChauraMaidan, the volunteers presented a powerful and thought-provoking street play that highlighted the dangers of drug addiction, the importance of social harmony, and the role of youth in shaping a better society. The performance drew a large crowd, and the messages delivered through the play left a strong impact on the audience. The march, filled with energy, awareness, and purposeful action, truly represented the spirit of NSS and demonstrated how youth can bring positive change in society.

Conclusion:

The Padyatra organised by NSS Unit Sanjauli proved to be an inspiring and impactful activity that successfully conveyed the message of unity, social awareness, and responsibility. It brought together students, teachers, and community members in a collective effort to promote harmony and stand against drug abuse. The enthusiastic participation of NSS volunteers, combined with the motivational presence of Chief Guest Mr. Suresh Kashyap, made the event both powerful and memorable. The street play at ChauraMaidan added greater depth to the campaign by engaging the public and spreading awareness in a creative way. Overall, the march strengthened the spirit of teamwork and patriotism among the volunteers and encouraged everyone to contribute positively towards building a drug-free and self-reliant India.

Acknowledgement:

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Suresh Kashyap for gracing the Padyatra with his presence and motivating the volunteers with his inspiring words. We also express our sincere thanks to the NSS Programme Officer and the faculty members of Government College Sanjauli for their constant guidance, support, and coordination throughout the event. Our special appreciation goes to all the NSS volunteers, whose dedication, discipline, and active participation made the Padyatra a great success. We are equally grateful to the local community and authorities for their cooperation and encouragement, which helped in spreading the message of unity and social awareness effectively.
