

Constitution Day Celebration on 26 November 2021 by the Department of Political Science

“Constitution is not a mere lawyer’s document, it is a vehicle of Life, and its spirit is always the spirit of Age.”

— B.R. Ambedkar

Constitution Day or Samvidhan Divas was celebrated at Centre of Excellence, Government College, Sanjauli, Shimla-6 by the Department of Political Science on 26 November 2021 to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution. To reiterate the values enshrined in the Constitution, the students and the fraternity joined the Principal Dr C B Mehta in the reading of the Preamble to the Constitution in the Auditorium Hall.

Professor Kamal Manohar Sharma, Retired Professor from the Department of Political Science, and an a well known theatre artist was the keynote speaker on the occasion, addressed the students and took them on a journey of the framing of the Indian constitution from its history to its present -day form; and its vital role in bringing together ‘an idea called India’.

An art Gallery was arranged by the students in which rare photographs of people who contributed in the making of Constitution were revealed to the audience.

Apart from special lecture students of the department of Political Science presented different cultural items representing the “Unity in Diversity”. A special quiz competition was conducted on the theme “Making of Indian Constitution”. A declamation contest was also organized in which students expressed their opinions in details about;

- Need for the constitution
- History of constitution
- People behind Constitution of India
- Basic rights and responsibilities of Indian citizen as per our constitution
- Preamble of constitution
- Challenges for Constitution of India

The students were engaged in various activities like Poetry, Kinnauri Dance, Pahari Dance and other performances which helped to reiterate the values and principles enshrined in the Constitution.

The Principal, Mr. C B Mehta, Ms Namita Khagta and Mr Devender Sharma motivated the students to reaffirm their commitment to uphold the ideology laid down in the Indian Constitution.
