MAKE A RIGHT CHOICE It is our duty to make a right choice. We should not vote for a candidate who is not qualified for the job. We should vote for a candidate who is qualified and who will work for the welfare of the people. 	VOTERS TRUST Trust is a feeling of confidence in someone. It is a feeling of belief in someone's honesty and integrity. It is a feeling of reliance on someone's word and actions. Trust is a feeling of faith in someone's ability to do what is right. 	CASTE YOUR VOTE It is our duty to cast our vote. We should not abstain from voting. We should vote for a candidate who is qualified and who will work for the welfare of the people.
POLITICAL RACE A political race is a competition between two or more candidates for an office. It is a contest of ideas and policies. It is a contest of leadership and vision. It is a contest of service to the people. 	PARLIAMENT Parliament is the highest authority in a country. It is the body that makes laws and oversees the government. It is the body that represents the people. It is the body that holds the government accountable. 	ELECTION An election is a process by which a candidate is chosen to hold an office. It is a process of choice. It is a process of participation. It is a process of democracy.
