

A REPOPRT ON LECTURE ON CAREER OPPORTUNITY IN SOCIAL SCIENCE

Date: October20,2019

On October 20,2019, a lecture on career opportunities in the field of social science was delivered by Assistant Professor Abhishek Thakur at Government College Sanjauli.The lecture aimed to provide valuable insights and guidance to approximately 200 students who were interested in pursuing a career in social science.

The main focus of the lecture was on presenting diverse career opportunities within the realm of social science. The lecture highlighted the growing demand for social researchers in academia, government agencies, non-profit organizations, and market research firms. The lecture also discussed the opportunities in the government sector especially in public administration. The lecture also touched upon the academia career path in higher education institutions.

The lecture concluded with a question and answer session, allowing students to seek clarification on specific career paths.

It is hoped that this lecture will contribute to the students decision making process and inspire them to pursue careers in social science.
