

Centre of Excellence

Department of Political Science

REPORT ON NATIONAL YOUTH PARLIAMENT

National Youth Parliament 2023

On
Uniform Civil Code

DATE:-

28th - 29th Sep, 2023

VENUE:-

HPU, Auditorium

Organized by

Himachal Pradesh University Institute of Legal Studies
Avalodge Chaura Maidan 171004

INTRODUCTION

National Youth Parliament was organized by the Himachal Pradesh University Institute Of Legal Studies.

The event was conducted in the Auditorium of Himachal Pradesh University. Students from different Colleges and Universities took part in the mock parliament.

The students of Political Science Department of Centre of Excellence Sanjauli College were also among them.

All students were assigned the portfolio's of different parliamentarians. The bill which was presented in the house was named UNIFORM CIVIL CODE. A healthy debate and discussion was done by the the young parliamentarians and in the end the bill was passed by the house through clear Majority.

NAME OF THE STUDENTS FROM CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE SANJAULI COLLEGE

- 1.) Ayush
- 2.) Sparsh Sharma
- 3.) Tarun Sharma
- 4.) Srishti Beakta
- 5.) Vishakha
- 6.) Harshita Thakur
- 7.) Sahil Malik
- 8.) Chirag Khenal
- 9.) Kanu Priya Sharma
- 10.) Muskan Bhardwaj
- 11.) Garima

SIGNIFICANCE OF NATIONAL YOUTH PARLIAMENT

- 1.) National Youth Parliament encourage young people to actively engage in the democratic process. They learn about government functions, policymaking, and how their voices can influence decision-making.
- 2.) Participants have the opportunity to develop leadership skills through public speaking, debate, and the formulation of policies and resolutions.
- 3.) Youth Parliaments provide a practical understanding of how a democratic government operates, promoting democratic values and principles among young citizens.
- 4.) Participants engage in debates and discussions on important national and global issues, fostering critical thinking, problem-solving, and analytical skills.
- 5.) Through discussions and debates, participants gain awareness of various social, political, and economic issues affecting their communities and countries.

STUDENTS CONTRIBUTION

- 1.) Our students actively engage in debates on various topics, presenting their viewpoints and arguments effectively. Their contributions helped shape discussions and lead to the formulation of well-informed policies.
- 2.) Youth Parliament involves the creation of policies or resolutions, our students played a crucial role in drafting, amending, and advocating for these policies, addressing important societal issues.
- 3.) Our students were engaged in advocacy efforts, lobbying for specific policies or changes in legislation. Their ability to persuade and mobilize support can be instrumental in achieving their goals.
- 4.) Our students can use the knowledge and experiences gained from the Youth Parliament to engage with their local communities, spreading awareness about important issues and advocating for positive change.
- 5.) Our students' participation in the Youth Parliament can inspire other students to get involved in civic engagement, leadership, and public discourse, fostering a culture of active citizenship.

IMPACT ON STUDENTS

- 1. Civic Engagement: Students develop a deeper understanding of the democratic process and become more engaged citizens. They gain insight into how government functions and the role of citizens in shaping policies and decisions.
- 2. Leadership Skills: Youth Parliaments provide opportunities for students to assume leadership roles, such as presiding officers, committee chairs, or speakers. These positions help students develop leadership skills, including decision-making, public speaking, and negotiation.
- 3. Public Speaking and Communication: Students improve their public speaking, debate, and communication skills. They learn to express their ideas clearly, persuasively, and respectfully, which is valuable in various aspects of life.
- 4. Critical Thinking: Participation encourages critical thinking and analytical skills as students engage in debates and discussions on complex issues. They learn to assess different viewpoints and develop well-reasoned arguments.
- 5. Policy Knowledge: Students gain in-depth knowledge of various policy issues, both at the national and international levels. They become more informed about important societal topics and their potential solutions.

CONCLUSION

The conclusion of a National Youth Parliament event can be a powerful way to summarize the significance of the gathering and inspire participants and readers to continue their engagement in civic activities. Here's a sample conclusion for a National Youth Parliament:

"In conclusion, the National Youth Parliament has been a beacon of democratic engagement, youth empowerment, and constructive dialogue. Over the course of this event, we witnessed the passion, intellect, and commitment of young participants who are not just the leaders of tomorrow but the voices of today.

Through spirited debates, thoughtful discussions, and collaborative efforts, we have collectively addressed pressing societal issues and formulated innovative solutions. The policies and resolutions born out of these discussions are not merely words on paper; they are the seeds of change that have the potential to shape our communities, our nations, and our world for the better.

This Youth Parliament has underscored the fundamental role that young people play in the democratic process. Our voices matter, our ideas matter, and our actions matter. We are the architects of our future, and events like these empower us to take charge of it.

Prepared by

Mr. Chirag Khenal

Class BA 3rd Year

Roll no. 2101506051

General Secretary

Free Thinkers Club
(Department of Political Science)

GDC Sanjauli

Guided by

Mrs. Poonam Chandel

HOD (Political Science)

Mr. Abhishek Thakur

Asst. Professor (Department of Political Science)

Thank you!