

Report on Public Administration Department's Multifaceted Competition Event (2023-2024)

Venue : Conference Hall, Centre of Excellence, GC Sanjauli, Shimla
13th September 2023

Introduction:

The Department of Public Administration organized a dynamic and engaging event on 13th September 2023. This event featured a trio of intellectually stimulating competitions: a debate, a quiz, and a poster making competition. It brought together students, faculty, and enthusiasts alike to showcase their knowledge, critical thinking, and artistic talents. Students of the faculty worked very hard to make this event a success. Organising team included Anu Thakur, Sonakshi Sood, Harsh Thakur, Bhuvnesh, Rythem, Vansh, Rishav Basu, Kanishka and Aastha Thakur of BA 2nd year.

Event Highlights:

1. Quiz Competition:

It was the event's opening act and took centre stage. It was conducted in a lively and competitive atmosphere. Questions ranged from historical milestones in public administration to contemporary challenges in governance. The quiz was a test of participants' knowledge, quick thinking, and teamwork. There were four teams competing against each other. Aditya Pathaniya of BA 2nd year served as quiz master. In the end team B, Ritik Verma and Arvind of BA 2nd year stood first as winners.

2. Debate Competition:

The debate competition, following quiz competition provided a platform for participants to articulate their views and engage in constructive discourse on Uniform Civil Code(UCC). The competition witnessed intense debates between participants of Second and Final year. Agrim Thakur, Kshitij Negi and Ritik Roshan Sharma of BA 2nd year were announced as winners of debate competition by Jury members: Prof. Vikram Bhardwaj, Dr. Pooja Dulta and Prof. Hem Lata Sharma. Rahul Negi, Nitish Raj and Nitika of BA 3rd year also performed very well and articulated their view in a peaceful and factual manner.

3. Poster Making Competition:

The poster making competition added a creative and artistic dimension to the event. Participants were tasked with visually representing the need of gender equality in our society. Uday Singh and Sanjay secured first and second places.

Participation and Enthusiasm:

The event saw an enthusiastic turnout, with students from various academic backgrounds participating. The participants exhibited a high level of dedication, preparation, and sportsmanship, which added to the overall success of the event.

Judging and Prizes:

Prof. Vikram Bhardwaj, Dr. Pooja Dulta and Prof. Hem Lata Sharma served as judges along with department teachers Dr. Naresh Verma and Dr. Purnima Thapar for the competitions. They evaluated participants based on their performance, content, and creativity. Prizes were awarded to the winners in each competition by honourable Principal of the college Prof. Bharti Bhagra, Dr. Naresh Verma Associate Prof. Pub Administration and Dr. Purnima Thapar Assistant Prof. Public Administration

In conclusion event organized by the Public Administration Department was a resounding success, showcasing the department's commitment to promoting intellectual and creative pursuits in the field of public administration. It provided a platform for students to develop critical thinking, deepen their understanding of governance issues, and express themselves artistically. This multifaceted competition event was a testament to the department's dedication to holistic learning and development.

Photos of Departmental Function

