

Department Function organised by Dept. of Sociology

Dept. of Sociology organised department function in collaboration with subject societies of Public Administration and Philosophy on 26th, December 2022. Different activities were conducted in this function. Declamation and Debates were organised on different topics. A lecture was also organised in this function on “ Career opportunities in Sociology”. About 300 students from different departments participated in this function.