Theatre Club, Government College Sanjauli & DD Himachal

Event Overview

On 12th June 2026, the Theatre Club of Government Degree College Sanjauli collaborated with DD Himachal for the shooting of two awareness-based music videos, "Anti Chitta Anthem" and "Anti Ragging Amma Mai Nahi Jana." The project aimed to spread awareness among students about the dangers of drug abuse and the importance of maintaining a ragging-free educational environment.

The shooting was conducted in the college campus with active participation from Theatre Club members. The collaboration provided students with valuable experience of working with a professional production team while promoting important social messages through music and performance. The event was successfully completed with the support of DD Himachal, the college administration, and all participating artists.

CONCLUSION

The collaboration with DD Himachal was a memorable and enriching experience for the Theatre Club of Government Degree College Sanjauli. Through the production of "Anti Chitta Anthem" and "Anti Ragging Amma Mai Nahi Jana," the students actively contributed to spreading awareness about two significant social issues affecting society today.

The project not only enhanced the creative and acting skills of the participants but also strengthened their confidence by working in a professional production environment. The Theatre Club extends its sincere gratitude to DD Himachal, the college administration, faculty members, and all the artists whose dedication and teamwork made this collaboration a great success. The event stands as another milestone in the club's commitment to promoting social change through the performing arts.
