EVENT OVERVIEW

On 31st December 2025, the Theatre Club of Government College Sanjauli staged a highly anticipated theatrical performance titled “The Three Shades” at the prestigious Gaiety Theatre, Shimla. Drawing inspiration from William Shakespeare’s classic tragedy Othello, the production delivered an intense and emotionally charged exploration of human frailty, jealousy, and the destructive nature of unchecked ambition.

PLAY SYNOPSIS

The narrative revolves around Indra — a cunning, deceitful, and power-hungry antagonist who harbors deep-seated jealousy toward Omi, a respected and powerful man. Omi’s wife, Punya, is portrayed as exceptionally truthful, loyal, and virtuous, qualities that further fuel Indra’s envy.

Blinded by his lust for power, Indra orchestrates a malicious plot, slowly poisoning Omi’s mind with suspicion regarding Punya’s faithfulness. The play masterfully portrays the psychological unraveling of trust alongside the dark progression of Indra’s conspiracy. The climax culminates in a devastating tragedy — by the time truth comes to light, innocent lives are lost and a once-beautiful family is irreversibly shattered.

THEMATIC MESSAGE

Through this powerful stage performance, a timeless moral is depicted: the blind pursuit of power and jealousy does not only destroy innocent lives, but ultimately consumes and ruins the very person who plants the initial seeds of destruction.
