

Report On Women Cell Function

A workshop regarding laws protecting women by ministry of women and child development was held in RKMV on 4 th September 2024 in order to spread awareness regarding how women can seek justice from the government in case of any crime against them and how government protect the rights and security of women .14 girls and 3 boys of our college took part in this workshop and were accompanied by 2 teachers .It was a workshop in which many successful and empowered women as well as youth gathered and formulated a strong mindset that could be achieved so as to eradicate all the crime happening in regards to women and how societal change can make a better and safe place for women to live in. In the beginning the principal of RKMV college addressed the gathered crowd and gave instructions regarding the aim and motto of the workshop.She laid emphasis on the fact as to how we can empower women and how to seek help and trust our laws . Then a declamation contest was held on the topic –“21 st century -Safety of women.There were two categories i.e. School and college. A total of 10 girls from various schools and colleges took part in the event and delivered excellent speeches on the concerned topic. . How rape of Dr. Moumita Das in Kolkata shook the nation and laid a big question mark on our society on our upbringing to our boys on our own mindset.The competition was really nerve wrecking as all participants performed great .After the declamation competition a Nukar Natak was presented by the students showcasing various crime against women in our society. There was a panel discussion in which the esteemed speakers were Ms Hemalata member of RKMV history department, Ms Geetanjali Thakur DSP in police department Himachal Pradesh, Dr Chandrika serving as assistant professor in National Law University Shimla and Ms Shalini Kashmiria an expert in cyber security. All the speakers told the spectators regarding the rules that are enlisted and applied in regards to women.

After lunch session 5 core speakers were invited . Firstly Dr. Mohan Dutt working as women and child welfare officer , Ms Rupali Thakur ,Ms Ritika Jindal ,Mr Virender Sharma all working as IAS Officers and Ms Jyoti Rana working as HAS officer .They said that these crimes won't stop overnight but we can be a generation who makes a revolutionary step to stop these kind of heinous crime . They also told about helpline number in case of any emergency that is child helpline number 1098 and women helpline number 181. Then Ms Geeta summarised the motive of this workshop. Then Colonel Dhani Ram Shandil Minister of Health and Family Welfare, Himachal Pradesh and chief guest for the event addressed the gathering and explained that why in today's time this workshop was important. Lastly he presented the prizes to all the winners and congratulated them and the organising college for arranging a great event. Ms Nikita Dhiman of our college won first prize in the declamation contest

Report By:

Vibhuti Sharma B.Sc. 3 Year (Non Medical)

Roll no:22451011

