

Faunal Diversity of College Campus

Department of Zoology organised an activity for the medical students (BSc I, II and IIIrd) Year on 20th February, 2023 in which faunal diversity of college campus and nearby area including college hostel was observed by the students along with faculty members and data was collected for this activity. Students were divided into five groups and assigned different area and photographs were taken and fauna were identified in the department of Zoology. Dr Minakshi and Dr Shweta guided the students. Following fauna were observed

Canis lupus,

Passittaciformes

Macaca mulatta

Felis catus

Rhophelocera

Papilio namadryas

Apis mellifera

